

Darryl Davis

Suggested Interview Questions

- So you are a motivational speaker. How does one become that?
- You first started as a speaker for the real estate industry and now you are branching into other industries. Do you have a core message you are trying to help people with?
- You have a very successful career; were you always successful?
- How long does it take you to write a book?
- You've done a lot of research on the science of smiling. Name a couple of interesting studies you were not aware of before the research.
- What is one of the take-a-ways of the book?
- Is there anything unique you created within this book?
- Why do you think many people fail to achieve success?
- What is the best way to handle challenges?
- What is the "communication process" referenced in the book?
- How can you create smile moments with family?
- How can you create a work environment worth smiling about?
- What can we do about procrastination?
- How do you deal with negative people in your life?
- Where is your book available?
- What is the last bit of smile advice?

